Dear Friends in Christ,

Next year will be my 30th year in ministry as a pastor. It doesn't seem possible. Where have the years gone? I would have to say that God has truly blessed me and my family over the years. The congregations we have served have truly been a positive experience for our family. We give thanks to God that our sons remain in the faith and are active in ministry, one as a Lutheran pastor and the other as an active member of a Lutheran congregation. This is not always the case with the children of pastors.

But looking back on my life has also led me to focus on my future. I know that my life is in the hands of the Lord. But it is also a reality at 61 that I have maybe 4 to 7 years left for full-time ministry, that is, if the Lord continues to give me good health. I could just sit back and maintain our current ministry, that would be easy to do, since God has truly blessed us with a healthy ministry. But I believe God has a role for me at this time of my life to provide leadership to help us prepare for the future of our congregation.

The Apostle Paul wrote these words to challenge the Christians in Rome and they speak to us today: "And do this, understanding the present time. The hour has come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed." (Romans 13:11) I'm not suggesting we are a sleepy congregation. God has blessed us with an active ministry. But I do believe that "NOW IS THE TIME" for us to "GROW IN DEVOTION TO MINISTRY AND MISSION." It is a time to give thanks to God for God's blessings of the past, to evaluate our current ministry and mission, and to help us prepare for the future to take advantage of opportunities God will give to us in ministry and mission. On Sunday, September 10, we will be going on an 8-week journey to help us grow, as individuals and as a congregation, in our devotion to ministry and mission.

In the Book of Acts we have a beautiful description of the early church: "And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. And all who believed were together and had all things in common. And they were selling their possession and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having favor with all people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved." (Acts 2:42-47)

Through a "NOW IS THE TIME" message series, Bible studies, special fellowship events, and an evening of prayer, we will conclude our journey on Sunday, October 22, with a congregational banquet to celebrate God's grace and our renewed commitment to support ministry and mission at Salem Lutheran Ministries through our time, talents, and our financial resources. More details about the ministry campaign will be available soon! At this time we ask everyone to keep the "NOW IS THE TIME" ministry campaign in your prayers. Ask the Lord to bless all preparations that this campaign may truly be blessed by God as "WE GROW IN OUR DEVOTION TO MINISTRY AND MISSION."

In Christ's love,
Pastor Mark

"Now is the Time" Ministry Campaign

More information will be coming out next month about a new ministry campaign at Salem called "Now is the Time." On Sunday, September 10 we will start a 7 week campaign with a "Now is the Time" message series, a special Sunday morning Bible study, small group Bible studies, and other activities, which will conclude with a banquet the end of October. Please keep this campaign in your prayers that it might be a blessing for our congregation.

Worship Themes for August

Ninth Sunday after Pentecost—August 6, 2017—Rev. Roger Schoolcraft
“Never Satisfied” - Based on Matthew 14

Our trip through Romans today continues as Paul invites us to praise God for all of His gifts that come to us through His Son, Jesus Christ. Paul lists the gifts given to the Israelites: adoption, glory, covenants, the Law, worship, promises, and patriarchs. All of these gifts and more are ours through our Lord Jesus Christ, because most of us are Israelites not by flesh but by promise. So great are the gifts we receive in and through Christ that Paul expresses his distress that so many of his fellow kinsman would not believe it. He even says he would be willing to be cut off from Christ, if only his peers would welcome the ultimate gift, the Lord Jesus. Thanks be to God that, instead of Paul, Jesus was cut off even from the Father on the cross, in order to reconcile all people to Himself! Jesus gave the ultimate gift—His life—for the sake of all people. This is a gift that invites belief and grateful obedience. Thanks be to God!

OLD TESTAMENT READING	Isaiah 55:1–5	(Come, eat and drink without cost.)
EPISTLE	Romans 9:1–5 (6–13)	(Paul anguishes over the people of Israel.)
HOLY GOSPEL	Matthew 14:13–21	(The Bread of Life feeds five thousand.)

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost—August 13, 2017—Vicar Mauricio Franco
“Do Not Fear”

God has worked faith in our hearts. There is no other way we would ever call out to Him in our distress. When we ask Him for anything, it is always because of His Word, which has convicted us of sin and assured us of grace. Jesus, the Word in the flesh, took the Law’s punishment for us and has bestowed on us His own righteousness. The Word is so powerful that we need not fear anything, not our conscience, not the world, and not Satan. As Luther wrote, “One little word can fell him.” The powerful Word puts us in our place as mere creatures (as Job learns). It invites us to trust our Savior even more (as Jesus beckoned Peter to leave his boat). And it promises, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” That promise is so sure that we dare not keep it to ourselves. Let us give thanks to God in worship today and in our continued sharing of the Good News.

OLD TESTAMENT READING	Job 38:4–18	(God puts Job in his place.)
EPISTLE	Romans 10:5–17	(Everyone who calls on the Lord will be saved.)
HOLY GOSPEL	Matthew 14:22–33	(Jesus invites Peter to walk to Him on the water.)

Eleventh Sunday after Pentecost—August 20, 2017—Rev. Brandon Martin
“A Crumb for Me”

Pet dogs know the right place to be at mealtime: under the table. They know you don’t need a special seat; these dogs are happy to get crumbs of “people food.” And we rejoice to receive what we don’t deserve: whatever blessings God bestows on us, disobedient sinners that we are. In the Old Testament Reading, God promises that He would call us foreigners to His table, and here we are. Even the disobedience of God’s Old Testament people has proven good for us, as we see everyone receiving mercy from a gracious God. The Canaanite woman in the Gospel saw herself in the position of a dog, trusting she would receive crumbs from the family table. But the bread crumb falling to earth she and we have received is none other than the Son of God, the Bread of Life. The crumb each of us receives is priceless! As we gather around Word and Sacrament, we get no stale food, but the nourishment we need for abundant life each day until we join saints and angels at the eternal feast in heaven.

OLD TESTAMENT READING	Isaiah 56:1, 6–8	(God promises to listen to the prayers of Gentiles.)
EPISTLE	Romans 11:1–2a, 13–15, 28–32	(God’s mercy extends to all people.)
HOLY GOSPEL	Matthew 15:21–28	(A Canaanite woman begs Jesus for help and is granted her request.)

Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost—August 27, 2017—Rev. Mark Krause “Ready or Not”...

There are many different opinions in our world about who the Lord is, and many of those opinions are based on who people want the Lord to be. What a privilege and joy it is that as we gather we don't need to try to seek and find the Lord and His attributes on our own. Instead, He reveals Himself as who He was, is, and ever shall be, in and throughout Scripture. We hear this today in our Old Testament Reading as God, through Isaiah, calls His people to look and listen to Him as He seeks and makes us His redeemed children (Isaiah 51:1–6). As His children, we are part of His Body and blessed to complement one other in faith and fellowship (Romans 11:33–12:8) and in the confession of who our Savior Jesus Christ truly is (Matthew 16:13–20). As He continues to seek and to find, and by the calling, gathering, and enlightening by His Holy Spirit through His Word, we worship in that promised grace giving certain hope now and in the future.

OLD TESTAMENT READING	Isaiah 51:1–6	(Listen, look, and give attention to the salvation of the Lord.)
EPISTLE	Romans 11:33–12:8	(Bound together in faith as one body)
HOLY GOSPEL	Matthew 16:13–20	(Confession of Jesus as the Christ)

Rest by Pastor Brandon

We all carry burdens. They are invisible, but heavy: debt, doubts, worries, shame, insecurity, and at the root of it all – sin.

These burdens wear us out and steal the joy of living. Many people don't know what to do except to escape or distract themselves for a moment – but when they return home, or turn off the TV, or lay down at night . . . the burden still weighs upon them.

But Jesus invites us to do something much better: “COME TO ME all you who are weary and carry heavy burdens . . .”

Jesus carried our burdens to the cross and the weight of this load crushed him and buried him in the tomb. Yet three days later . . . Jesus rose free from the weight because he left your burdens in the tomb!

He now offers us true rest in his love and forgiveness: “Come to me all of you . . . and I will give you REST.” (Matthew 11:28 NLT)

Whatever the burden, give it to Jesus and rest in him!

Cristo Para Todos Update

Your Spanish-speaking Family of Faith!

Salem Soccer Academy

Salem Soccer Academy is an outreach program organized by Cristo Para Todos to provide a fun, Christian environment for boys and girls ages 7-12 to improve their soccer skills and grow in character. The academy allowed us to connect to 22 new families in our community – with 37 youth participating! Pastor Brandon shared a brief message each evening with the youth to encourage them to trust in Jesus.

Leaders in Training

This summer, eight teenagers participated in a discipleship and leadership training program led by Pastor Brandon and Kristin Hatton. This year's theme was "Follow Me," a study of discipleship from the gospel of Matthew. Group activities helped them develop leadership skills necessary to live out their faith and influence their friends with God's truth. Each youth also designed a personal project in order to share the Good News of Jesus and his love within our church and into our community.

Worship in the Park

Cristo Para Todos celebrated Father's Day with a worship service and cookout at Tyson Park the last Sunday of June. We enjoyed great worship, delicious food, and a fantastic celebration of our family of faith.

Salem Lutheran School News

Before this month is complete, the 2017-2018 school year will be underway. The faculty and staff are busy preparing for the new school year which starts on August 7th for us and we are excited to get off to a new start. By the time you read this, we will have had conferences with more than 65 families whom we will be serving in our preschool 3/4 & 4/5 year old classrooms. At present we have 6 classrooms with our seasoned veteran staff at the helm.

All of our staff remains with us for this coming year. Linda Gordley, Vicki Littrell and Kara Phillips will be teaching in our 3/4 year old classrooms. Kathy Teters, Rhonda Collins and Tracy Burnett will be teaching in our 4/5 year old classrooms. Our wonderful Ruth Burnett will be filling our tummies with delicious food from the kitchen and our extended day staff includes Morgan Coleman, Karen Gonzales, Hailey Ray, Shea Kelsey, Caitlyn Sabatini, Shannon Janicki and Giselle Saavedra, .

We will be hosting an open house for the children and their parents on August 4th from 12:30-2pm.

On July 10th and 11th four staff members attended the Early Childhood Education conference in Memphis hosted by the Mid-South District. We had the opportunity to connect with others in early childhood from Arkansas, Tennessee and Kentucky. Many great breakout sessions were attended.

As the school year unfolds we ask for your continued prayers on this part of the church ministry outreach and we always look forward to having opportunities for you to volunteer and share in the joy of these little ones. We appreciate all the support and love you give all of us.

SCRIP Program

Would you like to help Salem Lutheran School financially without giving any money? As an ongoing fund raiser for Salem Lutheran School, we continue to sell SCRIP cards on Sunday mornings. We offer $25 and $100 Wal-Mart cards and many other “over-the-counter” cards as well as provide a process to order other SCRIP cards to be delivered on the following Sunday. When you buy a SCRIP card, it is worth the exact amount you paid for it, but in addition the school gets a small percentage. It is a great way to support our school painlessly. There are hundreds of companies that participate in this program. You can find out which ones do by visiting the website, www.shopwithscrip.com and clicking on SHOP. You can also register to be a user on this website as well and then would be able to order SCRIP online (You would need to get a code number from me to get started). With plenty of consistent users of SCRIP in our congregation, Salem Lutheran School would indeed be blessed.

In Christ's love,
Kris Busch, School Administrator
